A confirmation email will be sent upon receipt of your registration.

Accommodation: There are two accommodation options available. Single rooms at Epsom Girls Grammar or Marae style at Te Unga Waka. See descriptions below.

Epsom Girls Grammar:

Is the main venue of the conference and has single room accommodation with shared bathrooms with those of the same gender. Each room has a single bed, desk and chair and comes with a pillow. You can choose to have linen provided for an extra $8.

Write amounts in the boxes provided for adding purposes:

Saturday night, April 3rd	$32	Yes	No	<input type="text"/>
Sunday night, April 4 th	$32	Yes	No	<input type="text"/>
Would you like linen?	$8	Yes	No	<input type="text"/>

Te Unga Waka Marae:

Is approximately 100 m walk from Epsom Girls Grammar and has a single, large, upstairs room that can accommodate up to 50 people. It is light and airy with mattresses and pillows provided. The people staying must bring in additional bedding.

In traditional fashion, these mattresses are laid on the floor of the Marae with the pillow/head end against the wall, feet towards the walkways.

Toilets are located on the upstairs sleeping level and also on the ground level along with Men's and Ladies showers.

Please note: There is another group staying at the Marae from Friday to Monday and they will be using the main hall and kitchen facilities on site. Our meals will be taken at Epsom Girls Grammar as eating is not permitted inside the sleeping quarters of the Marae. The sleeping area with all our gear will be locked during the day with opportunities for access during break times.

Saturday night	$10	Yes	No	<input type="text"/>
Sunday night	$10	Yes	No	<input type="text"/>

Extra nights accommodation at the Marae are also available before and after the days of the conference.
