Campaigns

Prayer Vigil One of the two Australians remaining on death row in Bali, Andrew Chang, lost his final appeal against his death sentence recently. The only avenue left to him now is an appeal for clemency to the Indonesian President. We continue to hold prayer vigils for those on death row each month at Christ the King Church, Churchill Street, Graceville. The next vigil will take place at 7 p.m. on Tuesday 26 July.

Events in SEQ

Palestine Rally Justice for Palestine Brisbane will hold a rally as part of an international day of action calling for an end to the so-called "apartheid wall" in Israel/Palestine. The rally will be held in King George Square, Brisbane at 1 p.m. on Saturday 9 July. For more information, contact Justice for Palestine, Brisbane on 0401 586 923, 0400 720 757 www.justiceforpalestinebrisbane.org

Indigenous Health Talk University of Queensland Medical School will present Indigenous Health – Realising the Dream on Saturday 2 July, 11.45 a.m. – 5 p.m. at the Abel Smith Lecture Theatre, St Lucia Campus, University of Queensland. There will be a panel discussion, a keynote address by an Indigenous doctor and talks by Indigenous medical students. RSVP to Stephen Corporal at s.corporal@uq.edu.au
